I just want to say I have been a chef for 30 years and have worked in great restaurants in the Washington D.C. area. Your meal was so good if I served it any restaurant I worked at, they would be sending congratulations back to the kitchen. I have really never eaten frozen entrees, always made everything from scratch. But with this economy, I have be working longer hours and getting home late (and who wants to bread eggplant at 7 pm or make Lasagna).Then clean up the mess!!!! I just want eat, and not have to go out to eat and spent 3 x as much. THANK YOU SO MUCH, CAN'T WAIT TO FILL MY CART AT THE SUPERMARKET WITH ALL YOU'RE PRODUCTS

I just joined your Family Table Community! I just wanted to let you know that I came across Michael Angelo's family dinners at a Sam's Club in Charlotte, NC about 3 years ago. I could not believe how authentic the Lasagna tasted. I started to tell my friends all about it. I told them that it tasted as if you had made it yourself. It is so good, that you can take it out of the box after you have cooked it, put it in a nice dish, and no one would know the difference! I have tried some of the other entrees. They are all delicious! If I am not able to make my own Italian food due to time, I grab one of yours!

Hay, Gotta tell Ya!

I'm 76 years old and have been doing the cooking for me and my wife for over 50 years. Something for dinner gets a bit tiring of late---and then I found you!! Wow! All your dinners are de-lish. I couldn't believe it, and my wife agrees! (She's hard to please, but I still love her!) Anyway, I just wanted you to know, and also to send you a Huge THANK YOU!

I don't usually write to companies whose products I like, but I had to give you feedback on your frozen eggplant parm. It's AMAZING! A few years ago, I moved to western Massachusetts from Brooklyn, where you could get excellent Italian food at practically any street corner restaurant -- and at my mother's house. It has been pretty difficult for me to find authentic tasting Italian food like my mom makes up here. I had some bad experiences in local restaurants -- these Yankees don't have a clue how to make good Italian food (except in Boston) and should stick with clam chowder and baked beans. Earlier this year, I saw your frozen entrees in my Stop and Shop and tried them. My god, you guys nailed it! Your eggplant is excellent and tastes a lot like homemade. The sauce is really flavorful, fresh-tasting and isn't too sweet; the eggplant is plump and tasty; the cheese isn't gloopy; and the coating isn't greasy. It really is better than anything I've ordered out in the restaurants up here. Keep up the good work! I'm sure my mother would be pleased to know that her wonderful son can find decent Italian food and won't starve. Though of course if I told her I like your eggplant better than hers, she'd write me out of her will. Hope you understand.
